

Molly Scott

Singer • Poet
Psychotherapist • Sound Healer
Educator • Mentor

Dr. Molly Scott brings a deeply experienced life in music and the healing arts to her innovative work with voice, psyche and spirit called Creative Resonance ~ Sounding the Edge. An international teacher with a background in the performing arts and communication, Dr. Scott has a doctorate in counseling psychology and is a pioneer in the field of voice and therapy. Trained in systems, trauma, EMDR, and mind-body modalities, she has consulted to businesses and run training programs in the U.S. and Europe. Her work integrates psychological constructs and practice with intensive soundwork and shamanic insight, activating the alchemy of healing in group and individual sessions. Sounding at the edge of cognition calls for courage, radical honesty, and informed and compassionate mentorship. The goal of Creative Resonance work is to become tuned instruments for the music of change in our personal and professional lives. As a singer and composer, Molly Scott has devoted her music to social justice and environmental awareness. Her recordings, including We Are All One Planet, Honor the Earth, and Sound of Light, are on the Sumitra Music label.

Deep Story and SoundsWrite workshops • Training for clinicians and healing practitioners
Sound as Touch • Equine Assisted Psychotherapy ~ Horse Labyrinth • Mentoring for Mastership

Molly Scott, Ed.D., LMHC
The Creative Resonance Institute/The Sumitra Foundation
P.O. Box 327, Charlemont, MA 01339
(413) 339-5501
mollyscott@mollyscott.com
www.mollyscott.com / www.creativeresonance.com